THE LOVER'S PROBLEM.

Here it heart throbs,
Here it beats!
Maiden charming
And petite.

Here the throbbing,
Love and clear!
Is she frightened?
Is it fear?

What emotion
Yet I see?
That is over Troubling me.

There is something
From above
That might cause it
Is it love?

Ah! I know not!
Yet I know
Heaven have often Acted so.

Still I listen,
And I dare
Hope it's Cupid
Beating there.

Faster, faster,
So it seems,
Giving-toss over
Sweet day dreams.

But—'tis over,
What a bother!
Twas the ticking
Of her watch.

THE TURKPILE CASE.

Its Argument Before Appellate Judge Hazelrigg Saturday.

The legal rights are home again from Frankfort "neath the hill."
Where they had been to cogitate the Masonic turkpile bill.

Judge Hazelrigg was on the Bench and heard the arguments.
But when the lawyers took the train
The Judge was on the fence.

The best opinion seems to be The Judge will take his time To emphasize or ostracize
Our Fiscal Court of 5.

A Frankfort special says Judge Hazel-rigg will probably render a decision tomorrow.

CAUGHT 'EM AT LAST.

How the Lewis County Sheriff Obtained Some Witnesses.

Sheriff William of Lewis county was in Portsmouth Saturday with blood in his eye.

Ever since the killing of Tom Brown the steamer Hudson has gone by Vanceburg at full speed to evade service by the Sheriff on the officers and crew of the boat.

After several attempts, the Sheriff decided to go to Portsmouth, board the Hudson at the wharf and make service on the witnesses wanted.

Saturday afternoon when the steamer landed the Sheriff stepped on board, and as soon as the boat got into Kentucky water served his summons.

The examination of the accused men will be held at once and the evidence of the colored roustabouts, the only witnesses to the killing, will be secured immediately, as the low water season is at hand. If the evidence is not secured now it can never be.

Under the decision of the Law and Equity Court, making legal recent annexations, the territory of the city of Louisville now embraces twenty square miles.

Revenue officers have concluded a raid on moonshine stills in Letcher and Pike counties, having cut up and destroyed over thirty illicit stills. Some have been in operation over a year.

President Cleveland has refused to pardon a Washington editor convicted of criminal libel. Such a pardon, he said, could not be reconciled to the duty he owed to decent journalism.

Mr. Robert Q. Ward of Georgetown and Miss Marietta Hawkins were married at that place Thursday. Miss Fannie Carrick was the bridesmaid. Both young ladies are well known here.

Hiram Hester of Robertson county says he caught 113 cut worms around some bunch of mullin, and then it got so dark that he could not see, or so telling how many he would have caught.

The Negro who was found on the streets in Huntington with the malleps, claiming Maysville as his home, died yesterday. His real name was Daniels, and his home was in Cincinnati.

The Coroner of Louisville decided that cigarettes caused the death of Ella Hamilton, who died in an alley in that city.
She smoked from fifty to sixty every day, and she often would not eat, though she would not fail to smoke her cigarettes.

Motor car No. 3 jumped the track at third and Market yesterday at noon, and it took the brains of a crowd of about seventy-five, together with Motormen Greely Holliday and George Hunt and Conductor John Luman, about thirty minutes to place it back.

Garrard county will come to the front this summer with an enterprise hitherto not found in Kentucky. Jacob Newland, who lives about seven miles east of Lancaster, has secured seed from some successful growers and will try to raise coffee as a product. Both Missouri and Texas have cultivated the same plant with great success.

An old man named Bradford committed suicide at Locust Grove, Boone county, shortly ago by hanging himself. Samuel Clare, a neighbor, was charged with being responsible for the act, and has been warned to leave the county. He received a notice to that effect a few days ago, which contained about 250 words, without a notice or punctuation mark in the entire communication. The vigilants number thirty-six, according to the letter, and Clare is afraid that if their acts are as wicked as their composition he will be dealt with severely.

The Harrodsburg Sayings thinks the recent decision of Judge Barr against Mercer county, holding that the latter should pay $105,000 of railroad bonds, with accrued interest, which amounts to about $300,000, should be accepted as final.

The people of this county, says The Saying, "don't want this case carried any further. We can no more get rid of paying the award of Judge Barr than you could hope to escape liability for a note for a horse given to John Jones, who indured it to Peter Smith. Don't care if the horse did turn out to be a spavine jade, Peter Smith cares nothing about that. He is an innocent holder of your note, and any court on earth will say that you must pay him. This is the position of Mercer county, and the sooner we go to work and settle with Mr. Smith the better off we will be."

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Closing Meeting Held in This City on Saturday.

The Mason County Teachers' Association and Reading Circle held its ninth and last meeting in this city Saturday.

ducted by Mr. J. W. Ashbury.

lowing resolution, offered by Mr. Hayes Thomas and seconded by Miss Mary terman, Superintendent of Public Schools in Mason County, a vote of thanks for his

Before adjourning Superintendent Blatterman presented diplomas to ten members of the Reading Circle, who passed an examination upon "White's School Management" and "Skinner's Folk Lore."

the Knoxville branch to Lebanon, is on torneys are in attendance, and the case promises to be a stubbornly fought. There road company for extortion, fifteen for discrimination, and fifteen for violating the long and short-haul clause.

GET RICH QUICK.

WITHIN THIRTY DAYS YOU CAN BE A MANY MILLIONAIRE IF YOU DO THIS.

Money makes money. None is so poor that he cannot rake up a penny to start on.

Now, upon the first day of the month deposit a cent in the bank, and on each of the succeeding thirty days of the month double your deposit. Follow this program faithfully, and at the end of the month you will be surprised to find that your account will show the sum of $10, 737,418 24 to your credit. With that little sum you have to do to retire and let the rest follow you.

The following table will show exactly what would be the outcome of such a plan if it were put in operation and faithfully sustained during an entire month:

First day's deposit..... 1 Second day's deposit..... 2 Third day's deposit..... 4 Fourth day's deposit..... 8 Fifth day's deposit..... 16
Sixth day's deposit..... 32
Seventh day's deposit..... 64
Eighth day's deposit..... 128
Ninth day's deposit..... 256
Tenth day's deposit..... 512
Eleventh day's deposit..... 1,024 Twelfth day's deposit..... 2,048 Thirteenth day's deposit..... 4,096 Fourteenth day's deposit..... 8,192
Fifteenth day's deposit..... 16,384
Sixteenth day's deposit..... 32,768

Twenty-seventh day's deposit..... 67,108,864 Twenty-eighth day's deposit..... 134,217,728 Twenty-ninth day's deposit..... 268,435,456 Thirtieth day's deposit..... 536,870,912
Total of deposits..... $10,737,418 24

It will be seen that the progressive increase of deposits thus outlined would swell out the prodigious and seemingly fabulous aggregate of $10,737,418 24! In the face of such a plain and simple financial problem who is there that cannot grow rich in the twinkling of an eye, and ward snap his fingers at poverty and larbor?
